DEADLINE FOR FORTIETH-SECOND ISSUE-----June 23

To the Members and Friends of N.C.N.A.

OPPORTUNITY LOST. Since 1966, your president has maintained a listing of the club sponsored coin shows in the area. This listing is mailed on a quarterly basis to the members and friends of N.C.N.A. and on a monthly basis to 185 households that constitute the membership of San Jose Coin Club. For the price of a stamp and a few minutes of your time, your club's critical show information is multiplied like a chain letter to more than 300 people. This information must be sent to me in San Jose, and the WAY TO SAN JOSE is shown in this quarter's show listing. Unfortunately, some of the member clubs are not availing themselves of this service. Opportunity lost!!!

WE DID NOT GO TWENTY YEARS WITHOUT A BULLETIN. This issue of the bulletin marks the tenth anniversary of NCNA Heads and Tales. But the first NCNA newsletter was issued in July 1961 by our current secretary, Lillian Hooker. Mrs. Hooker continued to mail a news letter describing the progress and functions of the newly created organization on a quarterly basis from 1961 until 1963.

A formal bulletin was initiated in 1964 with Kathy Muller as the new editor. Kathy was a very dynamic woman, and expressed it in everything that she did for N.C.N.A. The bulletin appeared to be type set, and contained a great variety of material, all in the days before xerox and correction fluid, certainly before electric typewriters were very available and when word processing was unheard of. All of this proved to be a woman killer. Kathy was editor from 1964 until the middle of 1966. Your president took over as editor. Back we went to manual typewriters and Gestetner (high class mimeograph), but I lasted until 1975.

There was no bulletin from 1976 to 1980. Ten years ago, Michael Turrini took over and re-named the bulletin NCNA Heads and Tales. (The old name was the NCNA Quarterly). You know the rest.

A TRIBUTE TO ALL EDITORS. I should like to thank all bulletin editors of coin clubs at this time. You do more than to tell members what is happening here and now. You serve as the recorders for all coin club historians of the future. Recognizing this fact, I would like to take the opportunity to pay tribute to Professor Charles Kappen (retired, San Jose State University) and past president of California State Numismatic Association. It was Professor Kappen who, in 1950, converted Cal Coin News from mimeographed sheets into the type-set form that it has maintained to this day. Kappen set up the article format also, using only his old manual typewriter, and in a single year moved the publication forward at least ten years. During his tenure as editor, he published six issues per year, not four. His magazines provide the only information available, in many instances, about the activities of the coin clubs in the fifties. Well done.

PROOF STRIKINGS: Guest Editorial

Dear Members,

Since my husband, Denis Hooker, was the Founder, Organizer, and First President of our Northern California Numismatic Association (NCNA), I could not help but reminisce about the past fifteen (15) Presidents and their dedication and efforts to promote the growth of NCNA and each one producing a leap of progressiveness in his or her own way.

Listed below are the names, length of service as President, and a first-hand remembrance of each:

Denis Hooker, 1961-1963, A Revered Knowledgeable Man
John Sears, 1964, Conscientious
Milton Strauch, 1965, Humorous

Robert Mish, 1988-1989, Innovator and One Who Cared Edward Sins, 1990-1991, Present Incumbent

I have seen many personalities come and go through the years. It has been wonderful experience working behind the scenes and still remaining active as the present Secretary and managing the Registration Desk at our annual Coin Shows, each one since the first in 1961. It is such a pleasure to see faces from years past at our Coin Shows, people that seem to be a part of our big family with their dedication and interest in our hobby.

My mind is filled with many happy as well as sad memories of our organization, but the joyous times far outweigh the melancholy intervals.

We will continue to apply ourselves to pursue, promote, and improve this organization in the highest esteem for those that are dedicated to our hobby.

Thank You for your indulgence and time.

Yours Fraternally,

Mrs. Denis Hooker (Lillian)
Past President

THE MINTMASTER'S QUILL: An Editor's Prerogative

My Friends,

Hello! Welcome to the Tenth (10th) Anniversary Issue of NCNA Heads and Tales. Ten years ago, this endeavor was launched, and in the ten years much has happen and much could be written and remembered. Yet, for this Editorial, Your Editor will not draw upon the previous ten years nor forty issues of NCNA Heads and Tales--a sum total that could spark tens of editorials--rather at this milestone anniversary, Your Editor will share a lesson, playing the teacher that is his calling five days a week, with you the readers.

Recently, while attending an workshop, I viewed a video--one of the motivation-al types--and the narrator in his discourse reflected on several great thinkers and authors of our century, one whose name I have already forgotten but whose story, and its meaning, I shall never forget.

He was a psychologist living in Vienna, enjoying a good life and career, and he was also Jewish as the Second World War raged and was condemned to Auschwitz.

What was unique in his tragedy, not was that he survived that Hell, but that he resolved upon entering its Gates as a goal to continue 'to learn'.

To learn in a place that still to this day sickens the soul and stomach. To learn with the smell of death daily in the air. To learn as life was so cruelly de-stroyed. To learn where hope did not exist. To learn when each minute thicking might be one's last.

What a triumph of the human will and spirit, of faith over fear, and of human-ity, and of the mind over doubt. This man at the Gates of Hell proclaimed something so basic to human progress: knowledge.

In a way, much of my life, including this thing called NCNA Heads and Tales, has been generated and fueled by the like passion: to learn. Candidly, my life pales as dust to his triumph, but he has given us all a most enduring and edifying lesson.

True, this story--this lesson--may have nothing to do with numismatics; how-ever, learning is what life should be about. Think: if one scared, alone, and de-fenseless man could proclaim and strive for knowledge at Death's very door, can we here living now do no less, regardless of our age, time, or interest?

Chiseled into the walls of the library of my alma mater, Vallejo Senior High, is 'Through Wisdom We Shall Have Faith'. Wisdom. Faith. We.

Yes, a moving story and mighty sounding words, not coins nor coin clubs. Irre-levant? No! Why? Milestones cause one to pause and hopefully to think. It is natural as well as good, and this Tenth (10th) Anniversary should be no different. An Anni-versary is a time to reflect, and in the remembrances of those years past to appeal to our better angels, making meaning not for just ourselves but the whole world and all of time and mankind. God Bless.

Numismatically Yours,

Michael S. Turrini
Editor

San Jose Coin Club Is pleased to report the Exhibit Winners at its recent January 1991 Coin Show: Best-in-Show, GARY ACQUISTAPACE, Mexican Silver Pesos, First Award Adult, KEN BARR, First Award Junior, EDWARD SZETELA, and Second Awards, MARTHA SANFORD and AL LO. Recent SJCC speakers have been: RON MILLER, January 9, 1991, Current Coin Market and DAVID LANGE, February 13, 1991, Small Size Currency. SJCC has voted to relocate its 1991 Coin Show, but just across the street.

Stanislaus County Coin Club Has been sending its monthly newsletter regularly, and Your Editor has noticed its Editor LINDA WILLIAMS has a consistent habit of reporting the upcoming Board Meetings with an Open Invitation to SCCC Members to attend, of listing all those who volunteer to help and what each agreed to do, and of writing after each new member's name these words 'Come Back & Bring-A-Friend'. There is a heavy and friendly use of member's names: Show 'n Tell, workers, officers, drawing winners, and so forth. Very positive tone.

Livermore Valley Coin Club Viewed the slide program 'United States Copper Coins' at its March 19, 1991 meeting. The LVCC writes "Refreshments Endangered!--No, it's not the ants, its the lack of a sergeant-at-arms. Who'll volunteer? It's that or bring a snack lunch to meetings if you want anything to eat! Think about it". Refreshments should be shared and enjoyed among and by all members attending.

Liberty Numismatic Society Has its image much enhanced by its newsletter Editor DAVID LANGE publishing on his MacIntosh. JIM ROSEN, long-time LNSer, talked on and displayed his complete Large Cent Collection at the LNS' February 5, 1991 meeting. DAVID LANGE, well-known nationally recognized numismatist, spoke on Small Size Currency at the March 5, 1991 meeting. The LNS has become incorporated, thanks much to the single-handed time and effort of DON BURNS, also rising California coin hobbyist.

Cupertino Coin Club Celebrated its Two Hundredth Fiftieth (250th) Meeting last January 4, 1991 as seventy-five (75) people attended and enjoyed the special festivities coordinated by KATHERINE RAY, who wrote a moving tribute and reflection on this historic Meeting for the CCC's February 1991 Coin Press. In honor of one of its Founders and most beloved members, the late RAY ERKSON, the CCC has established as the Best-of-Show, the Ray Erkson Memorial Award, which was won by respected CCCer and its Coin Press Editor AL LO at the recent February 1991 Coin Show, held on the 23th and 24th; other Exhibit Winners were: First Adult, KEN BARR, Love Tokens, Second Adult, GARY ACQUISTAPACE, The Eisenhower Dollar, Third Adult, GLENN JACOB, California Medallions of the American Revolution Bicentennial, First Youth, ED SZETELA, 20th Century Type Coins, and Second Youth, KELLY CAROLAN, Mount Rushmore Presidential Minature Medals. The February 8, 1991 meeting heard KEN BARR explain Love Tokens: "What's a Love Token? KEN BARR defined a Love Token as a coin (not necessarily), with a planed off side (not necessarily), and with initials (not necessarily).

 With that concise definition, he said that showing what you SAY is a Love Token may get arguments from AT LEAST ONE person in attendance".

Pacific Coast Numismatic Society Elected its 1991 Officers: RICK
 WEBSTER, President, DON BURNS, Vice-President, FRANK STRAZZARINO, Secretary, and ROY PLEIS, Treasurer. KEN BARR, spoke at the January 23, 1991 meeting on National Bank Notes; DR. PAUL HOLTZMAN at the February 27, 1991 meeting answered "Dinosaurs On Coins", and DAVID LANGE at the March 27, 1991 meeting talked on "Charles BARBER: The Man and His Work". This March 27th Meeting was also PCNS's Nine Hundredth (900th) Meeting; yes, you read it right, nine hundred, 900, CM, 1915-1991!!!!!!

Delta Coin Club Notes that this year, 1991, is the DCC's Thirty-Fifth (35th) Anniversary. At the recent January 11, 1991 Annual Banquet, long-time DCC booster HOWARD WESELY was bestowed an Honorary Life Membership. DCC member WILLIAM DUTEMPLE reported finding a 1991 Lincoln Cent in circulation on February 12, 1991.
 For those interested in mintage figures, here, courtesy of SYD
 KASS, is a listing of the Delta Coin Club's silver club medals:

Year	Size	Mintage	Serial Numbered
1976	One-Half Ounce	50	No
1986	One Ounce	250	Yes
1988	One Ounce	100	Yes
1989	One Ounce	100	Yes
1990	One Ounce	100	Yes

Peninsula Coin Club Recent meetings themes have been: March 11, 1991
 One Half Cent Coins, February 11, 1991, Foreign Coins, and January 14, 1991, 'Bust' Coinage. Your Editor is curious as to what constitutes 'bust'? The 1991 PCC club medal design contest was won by MARK A. GEALY whose design was a most provocative and current concept, 'Filling San Francisco Bay'.

Napa Valley Coin Club Always hot on theme nights: February 20, 1991 was the First Annual Nickel Night and March 20, 1991 was the First Annual Half Dollar Night, or does Your Editor have the themes or dates or both reversed? In each issue of the Napa Valley Numismatic Notes, Editor GENE FEIERSTEIN reports the losers in the NVCC's meeting membership drawing under a section called 'Loser's Corner': February 1991, "Does the total of fourteen losers on Washington Quarter Night mean that we'll have only seven on Half Dollar Night because the coins are twice as large?
 I just hope it doesn't mean we'll have twenty-eight!"; March 1991,
 "Lots of low numbers up there [reference to the Loser's Corner box listing membership number drawn but not present]. Even our veteran members haven't figured out how to avoid getting their pills picked when they miss a meeting. So Don't".

Redwood Empire Coin Club Elected its 1991 Officers: JIM CASTARPHEN, DON HOMESLEY, Vice-President, and HELEN ROBERTS, Treasurer. The RECC held its Annual Banquet at Los Robles Lodge last January 23, 1991, at which new President JIM CASTARPHEN in his acceptance speech showed his 1801 Large Cent and and 1852 Three Cent Silver. The RECC meets on the Fourth Wednesday, 7:30pm, Orchard Park Community Center, 1945 Piner Road, in Santa Rosa. The Twenty-Fourth (24th) Annual Coin-A-Rama of the Redwood Empire Coin Club will be on Sunday, October 13, 1991, hours 10:00am to 4:00pm, in the Santa Rosa Veterans' Memorial Building, 1351 Maple Avenue, just across from the Sonoma County Fairgrounds, in Santa Rosa. The Bourse Coordinator is: 'WILLIAM FEIST, PO Box 2811, Santa Rosa, California, 95405'.

Solano Silver Round Club Reminds its Members that 1991 Dues is $10.00 per year. The SSRC's First Quarterly Drawing, held in December 1990, was a success while earning $132.00, and the Second Quarterly Drawing just held in March 1991 brought-in $179.00. The SSRC via its monthly newsletter Silver Notes is very much interested in reporting and promoting silver round issues, whether private, organizations, or commemorative events. Send details to: 'Silver Notes, Editor JAN HENKE, PO Box 3518, Fairfield, California, 94533'. Pictures and photographs are also welcomed.

Sacramento Valley Coin Club Revived its SVCC Newsletter under Editor BOB DECESARIS. The SVCC Officers for 1991 are: BOB BANDY, President, MITCH BLACHUT, Vice-President, RAY FIORINI, Recording Secretary, RAY TISSER, Treasurer, and PATRICIA BANDY, Corresponding Secretary. The SVCC meets on the Second and Fourth Wednesday at 7:30pm of each month at the SMUD Service Center, 5026 Don Julio Blvd., in North Highlands (Sacramento).

Fairfield Coin Club Elected its 1991 Officers at its January 23, 1991 meeting: STAN TURRINI, President, CRAIG BLACKWOOD, Vice-President, MOSES REIS, Treasurer, and SANDY BEARDEN, Secretary. SANDY has taken over JAN HENKE who after eleven (11) years has stepped down as Secretary and Editor due to health. She has an excellent writing style, friendly, joking, and sincere: "So, when is your birthday? I would like to put it in writing in your newsletter. What do you think? Tell me your birth month and day--year optional! No BUTTS about it: Ashtrays are provided by the Church in the courtyards. Please DO NOT use the grounds or gardens as ashtrays--use the ash cans provided in the courtyard. It is a matter of rent or death!". The FCC will sponsor its Second Annual Fairfield Coin Show on Sunday, September 22, 1991, in Building 1400, Student Center, Solano Community College, 4000 Suisun Valley Road, in Cordelia, off I-80 between Vallejo and Fairfield. Hours will be: 10:00am to 5:00pm, and admission is Free. For information write to: 'FCC, PO Box 944, Fairfield, California, 94533' or call '707-427-0482'.

Vallejo Numismatic Society Has held three great meetings in recent months: February 6, 1991, RAY COSTA, Mare Island Collectables,

March 6, 1991, Second Annual Paper Money Night with DON THRALL and SYD KASS sharing their paper money excitement, and April 3, 1991, Second Spaghetti Feed, the second one this year; the first was on January 2, 1991 was such a success it was decided to repeat it. POSTED FOR YOUR INFORMATION: Guest Editorial and Colophon

Proof Strikings

Since NCNA Heads and Tales is ten (10) years old, Lillian Hooker, who was NCNA President in 1981 and appointed Your Editor, was invited to write some reflections. Her thoughtful and kind comments have been published on Page 3. Your Editor appreciates her remembrances.

Colophon

The First Issue, titled First Edition, of NCNA Heads and Tales was in April 1981, and it was mailed on April 8, 1981 (at 4:30pm).

Since that First Issue, there have been forty-one (41) Issues, all printed or photocopied on 20# goldenrod paper and reproduced by Postal Instant Press, PIP-Vallejo. Two hundred (200) copies have been ordered for each Issue. All Issues have been published on a quarterly cycle--January, April, July, and October--and usually have been five (5) two-sided pages in length.

Your Editor has compiled statistics--quantities printed, mailed, and distributed--on each and every Issue, and for the records of the Northern California Numismatic Association (NCNA) itself, four (4) Issues are retained: one (1) with the Secretary and three (3) with the Editor. One (1) Issue each is provided for reference to the California State Numismatic Association (CSNA) Library.

Your Editor would enjoy learning if anyone or organization has a full complete set of NCNA Heads and Tales.
